

Super Sonic feast

A DINING EXPERIENCE IN 6 MOVEMENTS
...BE AS NOISY AS YOU CAN!

☑ 7.30PM, 19 OCTOBER 2012

THE OLD LIBRARY, GIBB STREET

GARGLE-ARGLE-ARGLE

An amuse bouche: amuse your mouth, yourself and your neighbours! Served from the stage using a 'porron', a traditional Catalan wine decanter! Don your poncho for this amusing mouthful and gargle noisily, mouth wide open.

OPUS IN PEA MINOR

A noisy little number! Suck, slurp and chase peas around bowl using only a straw.

DO IT YOURSELF HANDJOB

A variation of Alison Knowle's renowned 'Make a Salad' (1962), where you create your own aural culinary composition. There's a bell should you need help! Served to an accompaniment of a crunch-tastic filo encrusted feta and spinach pie.

OOOOOH MUTHAPUCKER!

Make a 'tart face' as you inhale the zingy-fresh scent of lemons...its like a helium hit - inhale deeply and laugh your socks off as your voice rises!

HOW TO MAKE A MESS

A play on a traditional Eton Mess. Follow the instructions and prepare to get dirty.

AMUSE OREILLE

Behold as the large pots take centre stage. Enjoy the slowly building cacophony that is the Companis Cheeseboard - our parting gift to you!

SONIC FEAST has been produced by Companis and commissioned by Capsule as part of the 10th anniversary of Supersonic Festival.
